

At home run around scavenger hunt.

Rules.

Before you start - tell everyone that you will be running around - we don't want accidents. And make sure your footwear is suitable for running around in.

You will get a list of three things to collect at a time. You will need to remember the list.

Do not start until you are told to go.

Once the leader says go run around collecting the items but take care of the people in your home we don't want any collisions or trips and falls.

When you have collected the three items return to the computer, type done into the chat bar and hit enter then hold the items up (or wear them) for the leader to see them.

At home - Kims game.

Have small items blutacked down to a tray ready under a cloth

Give the children 2 minutes to memorise the items - have them hold their hands up in the screen to stop cheating?????

Then cover the items and give them 2 minutes to write everything down

Go through the items one by one and get them to mark their own work.

At home - drawing a scene

Adapted from the drawing on the forehead game - can't use that as the cameras muck it up.

Each person is blindfolded and has a pencil and a piece of a4 paper

Tell them to draw these things in order (any 'story' will do - adapt for special occasions)

A house,
With sun shining
and clouds in the sky
There is a big tree in the garden
And a bird sitting in a nest in the tree
There is a dog watching the bird.
Somebody is waving from a window.

Now get everyone to remove their blindfolds and hold up their pictures.

Maybe vote on the best one?

At home - single line drawing

Draw something using just one line. You cannot go over the same line again.

At home - drawing competition

Two versions.

Version one - leader says a word and the kids draw it then hold it up

Version two - message each person with a different word and then go through them one at a time with the participants guessing what they are - guesses could be verbal or written??? You could give everyone a fruit or vegetable, or an animal,

Alphabet game

Version 1.

First person names something within the category that starts with a, next person does it with b, next with c and so on. If the person cannot think of one they are out and the letter moves onto the next person (so the letter doesn't change). If you get to Z and people are still in return to a and continue without re-using a word.

Version 2.

Everybody has to think of a word that starts with a and then everybody moves onto b. If they can't think of one they lose a point.

Four Corners

Each sets up 4 (or more) stations in their space. Could be red, blue, green, yellow (or whatever you want to call them).

Kids move about in their space. When leader calls out stop, they all go to a station.

Leader calls out a station (ie, blue). Those kids sit out for one turn. I used to get them to run that round while they were out.

Human Beans

RUNNER beans - run on the spot

BROAD beans - make themselves into widest shape possible & waddle around

JELLY beans - wobble about

JUMPING beans - jump about

FRENCH beans - bend hand over and say "ooh la la"

STRING beans - stretch up as tall as possible

MR bean - do a silly walk

BAKED beans - squat down & make a farting noise

MEXICAN beans - Raise arms and lower again (as in a mexican wave)

HAS bean - pretend to walk like n older person, with a pretend stick & holding your bent over back - not sure about this last one.
